Reader: You will be provided with the scripture reading for the week you are assigned. Take time to practice reading out loud, making sure to enunciate your words.

Greeters: You will need to be in the entryway no later than ten minutes before service to welcome people as they come in. You will need to assist the ushers during the offering.

Ushers: You will need to be in the entryway no later than ten minutes before service to pass out bulletins as people come in. When the service begins, you will need to count the number of people in attendance and write it down. At the offering, you will come forward to take the plates, pass them down each row, and bring the offering back down the center aisle after the offering.

Acolyte: You will need to be robed and ready no later than five minutes before service. You will light the Christ Candle during the gathering part of the service, and put it out after service ends. You will also give the offering plates to the ushers and take them up again at the end of the offering.

Bell ringer: You will need to be upstairs ready to ring the bell no later than five minutes before service. You will ring the bell three times after the opening dialogue. You will also ring the bell seven times after the final blessing.

If you are unable to be there for your assigned role, you will need to find a replacement before the night of.
