HEAR IT, FEEL IT, LIVE IT, SHARE IT – GOD'S LOVE

Dear siblings in Christ,

Christ is risen! Alleluia!

A few years ago, a Jewish friend of mine asked me about that phrase. “The grammar is all wrong. It should be ‘Christ has risen,’ right? Why do you say it that way?” She caught me off-guard with that one, even with all her other great questions about our faith. That question has stuck with me since, because growing up I had never stopped to ask it. Of course it’s “Christ is risen.” That’s the phrase! We all know what it means, right? But why do we use bad grammar to say it?

It’s because the empty tomb isn’t some quaint historical fact, set in the distant and misty past. The resurrection wasn’t something that only the disciples in that particular time and place got to experience. To speak about the resurrection as something past tense, as if time can keep it there, just isn’t true! If Christ has risen, then his he has done all he can do. And we know that’s just not the case!

Christ is risen, and that means his resurrection is changing the world even today. Because he is risen, we are filled with the Holy Spirit to love and serve in his name, like when we donate to the food shelf for families that are struggling through this pandemic and need a helping hand. Because he is risen, we are led to love those we’ve never met by wearing masks and getting our vaccinations, sacrificing so much over the past year so that when this is over, more of us will be here. Because he is risen, we are inspired to share the good news that we aren’t bound to the evils of sin that tie us down to selfishness and closed-mindedness and hatred. Because he is risen, his presence is with us now just as fully as it was with Mary Magdalene when she ran, breathless, from the tomb with the words “I have seen the Lord!”

The point of the “bad grammar” is to remind us that his resurrection is more than a thing that happened; it’s a thing that’s still happening today. His resurrection is our resurrection, and just as Christ was raised from the dead, we too can live in abundance of life! We can set aside all those things that weigh us down, dead things that keep us from fully loving our neighbor and sharing in the joy of God’s kingdom. We can know forgiveness that lets us fix what is broken. We can wake up every morning, remember our baptism, and set our minds on helping God’s kingdom come. His resurrection changes us today, as much as it changed us yesterday, and will change us tomorrow.

How is Christ’s resurrection changing your life today? How are you led to greater, fuller, fearless love for your neighbor because he is risen? What hope is God calling on you to share with others because he is risen today, and his resurrection still gives life to the world? What is God calling Our Savior’s to do in our community so that, as we hold out for the home stretch of this pandemic, hope can still be heard and seen and felt? And how is the “bad grammar” of his resurrection changing your life in ways you haven’t stopped to notice before?

Because Christ is risen! Alleluia!

In Christ,
Pastor Lucas

Crosses We Don't Choose

Then Jesus told them, "... take up their cross and follow me." Matthew 16:24b

Dear Members and Friends of the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin,

My friend Julie's mom had dementia. Julie picked up that cross and carried it as her beloved mother faded away. Paul was in second grade when he was diagnosed with diabetes. It was a cross he would carry for the rest of his life. Erica's drug addiction was a cross she and her family carried for years until she found sobriety. They were all crosses they didn't choose.

Jesus carried his cross on the road to his crucifixion. Along the way he falls, and a man named Simon of Cyrene is forced to pick up Jesus' cross and carry it the rest of the way to Calvary. Simon was most likely a reluctant cross bearer. Most of us are reluctant cross bearers. We don't choose the pain or suffering we've been dealt, and yet we carry the load. We don't choose to carry another person's cross when they are too weak to carry it themselves, but we are at times compelled by love to do so.

This month marks the one year anniversary of the pandemic. It is a cross that we've all carried to one degree or another. For some it has been an inconvenience and for others a heavy burden of suffering and profound grief. Theologically there is no way to put a positive spin on the coronavirus or 2020. It has been a cross we didn't choose. The strain of carrying this cross is evident in our country and congregations. We are all weary of it.

On Palm/Passion Sunday and Good Friday we are drawn into the story of Jesus' arrest, trial, and death. We walk alongside him in the crowd as he carries his cross, our cross, compelled by love. We walk with a suffering Jesus straining under the weight of this cross, stumbling, falling, getting back up and finally letting go, letting another carry it. Jesus knew pain in his human body, and so Jesus knows our every weakness. Jesus himself was beaten, knew suffering and was unable to carry the weight this cross. He falls to the ground under the weight of his love for us.

As a church we invite others to walk in the way of Jesus knowing that they are carrying crosses they didn't choose for themselves. We invite others to walk in the way of Jesus because as a community of faith we shoulder the burden and carry it all together. We help another carry their cross out of love. We are Simon of Cyrene.

Maybe that is what this past year has taught us; that we need each other; we aren't alone. We've been isolated, quarantined, but not alone. We can't take our congregations for granted. We need our faith communities and the relationships with other believers because we can't carry our own crosses. We follow the way of Jesus together bearing our neighbor's crosses out of love.

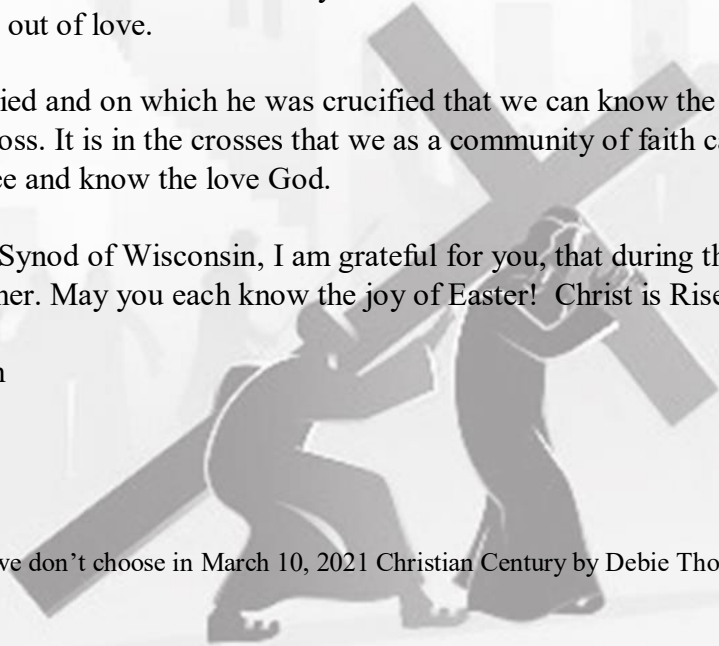

It is in the cross that Jesus carried and on which he was crucified that we can know the love of God and salvation. This is Luther's Theology of the Cross. It is in the crosses that we as a community of faith carry together as we follow in the way of Jesus that we too see and know the love God.

Dear friends of the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin, I am grateful for you, that during the pandemic, we were able to walk in the way of Jesus together. May you each know the joy of Easter! Christ is Risen. He is risen indeed.
